The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Animal control authority means the county and the city and their designated officers. The licensing authority and the animal control authority may be, but are not necessarily, the same entity.

Animal control shelter means a facility operated by the county and, in addition, if designated and contracted, other facilities under contract with the city for the impoundment and care of animals that are found in the streets or at large, animals that are otherwise held due to the violation of a municipal ordinance, county ordinance or state law, or animals that are surrendered to the animal control shelter.

Control means having an animal in confinement as described or required by this chapter, or restrained by its owner on a leash no greater than six feet in length and of sufficient strength to confine the animal, or in certain cases where specified in this chapter, a shorter leash. The term "control" shall not mean allowing an animal to go unleashed outside of its confinement or pen.

Dangerous animal means any and all of the following:

- (1) Any mammal, amphibian, reptile, or fowl of a species which, due to size, vicious nature or other characteristic, would constitute a danger to human life, physical well-being or property, including but not limited to lions, tigers, leopards, panthers, bears, wolves or wolf hybrids, apes, gorillas, monkeys of a species with an average adult weigh in excess of 20 pounds, foxes, elephants, alligators, crocodiles and snakes which are poisonous or otherwise present a risk of physical harm or death to human beings as a result of their nature or physical makeup, including all constrictors.

The term "pit bull dog" means any dog of one of the breeds known as Staffordshire Bull Terrier, American Staffordshire Bull Terrier, or American Pit Bull Terrier, or any dog with the appearance and characteristics of being predominantly of any one of such breeds, or combination thereof, or in combination with other breeds.

Handler means any person having control of an animal, whether or not by the consent or direction of the owner.

Impound means to place any animal in the custody or control of an animal control shelter.

Owner means a person having the custody of an animal or who keeps or harbors an animal, a person having the authority of the owner to be the handler of the animal, or a person who knowingly permits an animal to remain on or about any premises occupied by that person.

Poultry includes chicken, ducks, geese, pheasants, or other fowl of a type normally used for food or egg production.

Restraint. A dog or cat shall be considered under restraint if it is within the real property limits of its owner or secured by its owner on a leash or lead no greater than six feet in length and of sufficient strength to confine the animal. Any other animal is considered restrained only if it is effectively prevented from escape by appropriate means.
