RULES AND CODES OF CONDUCT

The purpose of the Muskegon Public Safety Youth Academy (MPSYA) is to engage youth with police, firefighters and other public safety agencies, as well as to encourage youth to consider a career in public safety and become more connected with their community. In order to maintain an enriching, informational and exciting atmosphere for students between the ages of 12-15, the following Rules and Codes of Conduct shall be followed:

1. All students and staff will show respect for each other as well as themselves and the broader community.
2. All students will arrive on time, complete the entire Academy and be picked up promptly at the end of each day.
3. All students and/or a parent/guardian shall immediately inform MPSYA Staff in the event of an emergency situation.
4. All students shall follow the direction of MPSYA Staff and presenters at all times.
5. Unless given direct permission by MPSYA Staff, cell phones/electronic devices will not be used during the Academy.
6. MPSYA staff and presenters are not responsible for the loss/theft of personal property brought to the Academy.
7. All students will participate fully in each event, discussion and photo opportunity.
8. Participants must disclose any physical, educational or mental health limitations to MPSYA staff prior to the first day.

I understand that the MPSYA will include physical fitness training, simulated crime scene investigations and exposure to a wide variety of public safety and victimization topics. By applying for the Academy, I understand that myself/my child will follow all the above listed rules, will notify staff immediately in the event of any changes or concerns and will uphold a positive attitude throughout the Academy. I also understand that myself/my child will be photographed/videoed at times and these images may be posted on our website, future fliers, social media or shared with the media. By signing this form, it signifies that I have read over these rules and know that I/my child may be removed from the Academy if I fail to follow these Rules and Codes of Conduct.
